Numb. 1568

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 25. to Monday November 29. 1680.

Leghorne, Nov. 10.

THere is now in this Port the Antelope bound for England, having under her Convoy two Scandaroon Ships very richly Lad n, together with the Exchange, Captain Martyn, the George, Captain Haſelwood, the Bonadventure-Merchant, Captain Bodbin, the Induſtry, Captain Gere, the Edward and Francis Captain Man, the James, Captain Roberts, and the Thames, Captain Roberts, from Galipoli and Zant.

Genoua, Nov. 20. The 15th Inſtant in the night happened a very great Storm, which did not much harm in this Port, but at Alaſſio, a place about 70 Miles from hence, five Barks, and one of the eight French Galleys that were there was caſt away, the other ſeven very narrowly eſcaping by throwing over board their Cannon, &c. and it's believed they will be forced to return to Marſeil es to refit, and hardly come abroad again in the Winter: The Violence of the Storm laſted not above half an hour, and forced the Galley that was loſt from her Anchor; moſt of the men in her were drowned. Juſt now arrive ſeveral French Barks, who tell us they met the ſeven Galleys abovementioned, going homewards.

Marſeilles, Nov. 26. We have an account of the loſs of one of the eight Galleys that parted lately from hence under the Command of Monſieur de Navailles; She was called the Happy, commanded by the Count de Luc, and was loſt in bad weather, and in her above 150 Men, the other ſeaven very hardly eſcaping.

Lintz, Nov. 18. The Duke of Lorrain and the Duke of Newburg are expected here in few days to aſſiſt at a great Council of War that will be held for taking ſuch reſolutions as may be neceſſary in the preſent Conjuncture, and the Emperor is ſending to the Electors and other Princes of the Empire to know their Sentiments upon the many complaints that are daily made concerning the proceedings of the French.

Strasburg, Nov. 24. The Biſhop of Strasburg is gone for Paris, leaving his pretentions upon this City in the ſame ſtate they were in before he came into Alſace. The French are filling their Magazines at Friburg, B iſac, and Slechſtadt, and we are told that their Troops are marching this way from Lorraine.

Berlin, Nov. 27. Yeſterday Prince Louis, the Electors ſecond Son, parted from hence on his journey to Pruſſia, b ing accompanied with near 200 Gentlemen; It is ſaid he goes to viſit the young Prince of Radzeville. The Court of Saxony continues ſtill at Bautzin, by reaſon of the Plague, from whence we hear that the Elector had Impriſoned his Secretary, for holding Correſpondence with ſome other Court. The new Levies that are making for the Emperor go on, and will it's ſaid, in a ſhort time, be perfected. The 22 arrived here Mr. Skelton, his Majeſties late Envoy Extraordinary at the Emperors Court, in his way home.

Cologne, Nov. 29. From Francfort they write, That the French are going to Fortifie Germerſhiem and other places in the Palatinate. The Affairs of Liege continue in great diſorder, and we do not perceive that any thing is doing to compoſe them.

Hamburg, Nov. 26. There being now poſitive Orders come from Copenhagen for the Evacuation of Wiſmar, 800 Swediſh Soldiers are on their march from Stade to take poſſeſſion of the place, whither Count Conningſmark, Governor of Pomeren for the King of Sweden is likewiſe gone to be preſent when the Danes draw out. From Stockholm they write, That the Nobility continued with great earneſtneſs to oppoſe the re-union of the alienated Crown-Lands, which the other Eſtates had conſented to, and that the King had already poſſeſſed himſelf of ſome of the ſaid Lands, which ſeveral of the chief Nobility had proteſted againſt. It is ſaid that the Duke of Zell is going to raiſe ſome new Troops.

Hague, Dec. 3. The States have ſent directions to their Ambaſſador at Paris, to inſiſt to be received at his Audience with the ſame Ceremonies and Reſpects as is uſed to Ambaſſadors of Venice on the like occaſion, and at the ſame time have ordered their Deputies to diſcourſe with the French Ambaſſador about this matter. The States of Holland have, ſince their meeting, been taken up in private affairs only.

Bruſſels, Nov. 29. The Conde d'Arckinto, and Don Bernardo de Salinas's Journey to Antwerp has been ſtopt by an unlucky accident; for on Wedneſday laſt arrived here the Markgrave and other Deputies from that City to acquaint the Prince of Parma, That the people there were in ſome diſturbance, occaſioned by the impriſonment of one of their Citizens, who being accuſed of High Treaſon had been ſecured and ſent Priſoner to the Caſtle of Namur, which they thought a breach of their Priviledges, ſaying, That if he were guilty of the ſaid Crime, he ought to be Tryed by the Council of Brabant, and not to be carried out of the Province; upon which his Highneſs, to let that City ſee his good inclination towards them, has given order for the bringing the Priſoner back from Namur, in order to his Tryal here. We are very much Allarm'd with the Advice we receive, that the French threaten to Lodge their Troops in the Country of Luxemburg, becauſe the Governor of that Province had put ſome Troops into Arlon and other places, to prevent their doing it: That they are making great Magazines in ſeveral places, That they had brought above 100 Pieces of Cannon to Meſſieres on the Meuſe, and that they are likewiſe prepairing a great Train of Artillery at Tournay.

Paris,